GO Site Agreement Form

This agreement between Project Get Outdoors, Inc. (Project GO) and _____ (your organization/community group) sets forth procedures and policies concerning training and resources provided by Project GO, including the GO Activity Backpacks and Themed Equipment Trunks.

1. The _____ (organization/community group) agrees to be labeled as a "GO site" to be conveniently identified by Project Get Outdoors, Inc., and agrees to use the name "Project Get Outdoors" in any promotional materials or advertisements concerning the training and GO Activity Backpacks and Themed Equipment Trunks and any programs or activities made possible through the use of these resources.
2. The _____ (organization/community group) must carry their own liability insurance and must have a procedure in place for screening volunteers or must partner with another community organization that can provide these services. Project GO does not provide any volunteer screening or insurance liability services.
3. The GO Activity Backpack will be issued to each staff member or volunteer of _____ (organization/community group) who completes the 8-hour Project GO Certification program. Backpacks may also be purchased individually for $125 each.
4. Project Get Outdoors, Inc. will provide select Themed Equipment Trunks to your organization/community group upon request free of charge (depending on Project GO funds and availability).
5. All personnel that use the GO Activity Backpack and/or Themed Equipment Trunks are encouraged to complete the Project GO Leader Certification training.
6. Program Leaders are to plan, promote, and lead outdoor activities, as well as be the communicator between their site staff and volunteers, the Project GO facilitator, and the other program enhancing partners.
7. Site volunteers are encouraged to gather photos and stories to share on social media.
8. At the end of each year, Project GO will send an annual survey to the _____ (organization/community group). Partner sites are highly encouraged to share photos and site stories as part of the annual survey.

By signing, I verify to uphold this agreement on behalf of my organization/community group.

Self-Reflection

This self-reflection, this willingness to examine ourselves, to make corrections, to do better, that's part of what makes us Americans. It's part of what sets us apart from other nations, the United States is the most professional, most capable, most cutting-edge intelligence community in the world.
